Custom That Is Becoming Popular In America. A Christmas gift that is growing as popular here as in England is that of a plum pudding. It may be made at home and goes to its destination daintily wrapped, though still in its mold, and tied with ribbons and holly. In England about 250 tons of plum puddings, averaging seven pounds each, are sent out each year. According to an old tradition, plum pudding should be at least "nine days old" before its eating.
